OBJECTIVE

I have a strong dedication towards working in the field of Information Technology and have switched my career from the Oil, Gas, Energy, Chemical, and Petrochemical industry. I am constantly searching for challenging job opportunities in a reputable organization's dynamic, team-oriented, competitive, and cooperative environment. As a proficient, innovative, and committed professional, I aspire to work in an environment that offers maximum chances for learning and growth. My previous experience was primarily based on EPC/FEED Mechanical Discipline, which includes Piping, Pipeline, Welding, and Structural work. I am also an American Petroleum Institute (API) certified in-service piping (API-570), Pressure Vessel (API-510), and Above Ground Tank (API-653) Inspector. Currently, I am working as a Senior Executive Project Manager and Website Builder/Designer, with expertise in Shopify, WordPress, and HTML, JS, and CSS Backend
